This broadcast log may not be reproduced or distributed, in whole or part, in any form or by any means, electronic or mechanical, including photocopying or recording, or by any information storage or retrieval system without permission from the author, Stewart M. Wright and from Jim French Productions.

First Show: 03/17/1996.

Last Show: 02/26/2017.

Weeks on the Air: 1093.

Audition Show: None.

STATUS NOTE:

Effective Friday, March 31, 2017 Jim French Productions has ceased producing new shows.

BACKGROUND:

Jim French has been writing, directing, and producing radio dramas for Seattle listeners since 1965. Prior to the advent of the weekly, syndicated Imagination Theatre by TransMedia on March 17, 1996, Jim's shows were usually only aired in the Seattle, WA area. In January, 2007 Jim French Productions assumed syndication operations from TransMedia.

Imagination Theatre most recently aired on KIXI in Seattle and was syndicated internationally as Imagination Theatre on radio stations in the United States and New Zealand. It was also heard around the world over the Internet via the websites of various radio affiliates and Jim French Productions. Effective September 11, 2016 selected episodes of The Adventures of Harry Nile, The Classic Adventures of Sherlock Holmes and The Further Adventures of Sherlock Holmes are airing on the Sirius/XM satellite RadioClassics Channel #148.

"UMBRELLA TITLES":

Imagination Theatre was an "umbrella title" under which the various series and stand-alone shows of Jim French Productions and others aired. Over the years, Imagination Theatre shows have aired on three Seattle flagship stations: KIRO, KNWX, and KIXI.

Each station has had one or more "umbrella titles" under which Imagination Theatre has been aired. These local "umbrella titles" are:

KIRO Mystery Playhouse on KIRO 12/16/1990 - 02/21/1999,
PEMCO Imagination Theatre on KNWX 02/21/1999 - 03/19/2000,
Imagination Theatre on KNWX 03/26/2000 - 01/05/2003,
and
Imagination Theatre on KIXI 01/12/2003 - 02/26/2017.

PROGRAM FORMAT:

Imagination Theatre occupied a 55-minute time slot. Usually two shows were aired on Imagination Theatre weekly. Frequently, the second show was one that has been previously aired on Imagination Theatre. Occasionally, a single, double-length Jim French-produced show was aired in the time slot. (For a listing of the Jim French double-length show that have aired on Imagination Theatre, see EPISODE NOTES: Double-Length Episodes:) Episodes of non-Jim French produced series, Louis L'Amour Theatre and many episodes of Powder River, are double-length shows.

Programming Note:

It was only since late 2000 that initial airings of newly produced shows normally occur during the same broadcast week on both the flagship station in Seattle, and the syndicated Imagination Theatre. Before then, new shows were usually aired on Seattle radio prior to their syndicated Imagination Theatre initial airing.

The syndicated Imagination Theatre aired on Sunday evenings on the flagship station in Seattle. Affiliate radio stations selected when they air the series.

SERIES DESCRIPTIONS:

The following are brief descriptions of and information about the series that air on Imagination Theatre. (More detailed information for several Jim French series in the form of series broadcast logs can be found at links listed within the series descriptions.

NOTE: that not all episodes of all Jim French series have aired on Imagination Theatre.

Tower Playhouse

Notes:

Crisis/The Adventures Of Harry Nile:

Four episodes of The Adventures Of Harry Nile ("West For My Health," "Seattle Blues," "The Neptune Trading Company," and "Malibu") were first aired as part of the Crisis series. When Jim decided to make a "Harry Nile" series these shows were aired again in late 1977 as the first four episodes of The Adventures Of Harry Nile series.

Possible "Lost" Episode:

Information received from Jim French Productions in July, 2008 indicated that an episode, "Two Sets Of Tweeds," was recorded and scheduled to air sometime in June, 1978. However, there is no proof that this episode was actually broadcast and no copy of this episode is currently known to exist. The script for "Two Sets Of Tweeds," was later extensively modified and broadcast on Imagination Theatre as "A Scheduled Murder" on 11/13/2005.

Featured were characters from various Jim French series: Sherlock Holmes and Dr. Watson (The Further Adventures Of Sherlock Holmes), Harry Nile and Murphy (The Adventures Of Harry Nile), Raffles and Bunny (Raffles, the Gentleman Thief), Hilary Caine (The Hilary Caine Mysteries), and Michael Kincaid, Shelly Mars and Randall "Biggie" Bigelow (Kincaid, The Strangeseeker) all appearing in one adventure as written by Jim French and British writer M. J. Elliott.)

Special Imagination Theatre 15th Anniversary Broadcast:

"Fifteen Years Later: Chapter 10 of War Comes to Harry Nile"

A special episode of The Adventures Of Harry Nile. This double-length story celebrates 15 years of Imagination Theatre broadcasts and features guest stars

John Patrick Lowrie from The Classic and Further Adventures of Sherlock Holmes;

Terry Rose from Kincaid, The Strangeseeker;

John Armstrong from Raffles, The Gentleman Thief;

Karen Heaven from The Hilary Caine Mysteries.

The time is June, 1944 and following the events of Chapter 3, "D-Day Minus One," Harry is still in England waiting to get a flight home. However, he isn't bored. He manages to get himself involved with murder, treason and a former "girl" detective. He also encounters an aged consulting detective; a reformed, for the duration, gentleman thief; and a nut job who says he is a seeker of the strange and unusual.

15 Years of Sherlock Holmes on *Imagination Theatre

On March 8th 1998 The Further Adventures of Sherlock Holmes made its debut as a continuing series on Imagination Theatre. The premier episode was titled "The Poet of Death" starring the late John Gilbert as Holmes and Lawrence Albert as Dr. Watson with Lee Paasch as Mrs. Hudson in that first adventure.

On March 25, 2013 at the Kirkland Performance Center Jim French Productions celebrated fifteen years of the Great Detective's exploits on Imagination Theatre by recording a specially prepared for the occasion, a double-length script "The Adventure of the Irregular Client" written by M. J. Elliott. John Patrick Lowrie and Larry Albert are the now the longest running audio Holmes and Watson team in the history of American radio as is the series.

1,000th Imagination Theatre Broadcast:

On 05/17/2015, "The Three Gifts of Malebolgia or Three of Our Actors Are Missing," a special program for the 1,000th week of Imagination Theatre aired on a one-time basis only. Featured were three leading actors from various Jim French series: John Patrick Lowrie (Sherlock Holmes), Lawrence "Larry" Albert (Dr. Watson and Harry Nile), and Terry Rose (Michael Kincaid.) Also appearing out-of-character were John Armstrong (Raffles, the Gentleman Thief), Rachel Glass (The Hilary Caine Mysteries), David Natale (Mr. Darnborough Investigates), Kathryn Shield and Richard Sanders (Shelly Mars and Bigelow of The Strange Seeker), Jay Green, Mary Anne Dorward (Murphy of The Adventures of Harry Nile) and the man responsible it all, Jim French. The script was written by writer M. J. Elliott.

MILESTONES IN RADIO:

The airing of "The Sign of Four," the Jim French Productions' series, The Classic Adventures of Sherlock Holmes, is noteworthy in radio drama history for several reasons.

It is the first time the entire Conan Doyle Canon was produced and aired as a single series for North American radio. It was also the initial time that the Sherlock Holmes, Dr. John H. Watson, Mrs. Hudson and Inspector Lestrade characters were played throughout the entire series by the same actors: John Patrick Lowrie as Sherlock Holmes and Lawrence Albert as Dr. John H. Watson, with the late Lee Paasch as Mrs. Hudson and Rick May as Inspector Lestrade. Every episode was produced with the full authorization of the Estate of Dame Jean Conan Doyle, the daughter of Sir Arthur.

Another first for The Classic Adventures of Sherlock Holmes is that it is the first time that a single writer, M. J. Elliott, adapted the entire Conan Doyle Canon for radio.

LIVE BROADCASTS:

Only two Jim French shows have been broadcast live. These are "The Case Of The Blue Leather Chair," an episode from The Adventures Of Harry Nile, and a stand-alone show, "Moving Day." They were broadcast on New Year's Eve 1995.

RECORDING SESSIONS:

Starting in 1974, over 340 shows that initially aired on KVI Theater of The Mind, KIRO Mystery Playhouse, PEMCO Imagination Theatre, and Imagination Theatre have been recorded before live audiences.

Through January 2000, recording sessions were held at the Museum of History and Industry in Seattle.

Recording sessions were most recently held at the Kirkland Performance Center in Kirkland, WA. The recording sessions were open to the public and usually occur at roughly two month intervals. Usually, episodes of The Adventures Of Harry Nile and The Further Adventures Of Sherlock Holmes and/or The Classic Adventures of Sherlock Holmes are recorded at each session.
